

Action for Children Sunday

Join us for a special service in support of Action for Children

Date

Time

Venue

The Methodist community has been with Action for Children since the moment we began. Over 150 years ago, when Methodist minister Reverend Dr Thomas Bowman Stephenson found two young boys sleeping under the arches of Waterloo Station and took action.

And you've been at our side with every child we've helped since.
Thank you.

Find out more at: actionforchildren.org.uk