

Our legacy promise
to you

- We promise to treat you, your friends, family and representatives with sensitivity and respect.
- We'll never try to deter you from considering your loved ones first in your will. In fact, we encourage you to talk to those close to you about any changes you're thinking of making.
- Once you have left us a gift in your will, you have the right to change your mind at any time. You don't have to share your decision with us. Likewise, if you already have a will and would like to include us, you can use our codicil form.
- We aim to make leaving us a gift in your will a quick and simple process. Please let us know if you have any questions and we promise to reply as soon as we can.
- If you do leave a gift to us in your will, it's your choice whether you tell us – we respect your privacy. But if you're happy to share your decision, you can tell us here.
- We promise that we will use your gift to support our charitable purposes.
- We won't share your data with any third parties. We promise to only communicate with you via channels of your choice and only with your permission.
